Erica Small, Shelley Dante, Steve Haggerty

CDHfH is a non-profit, ecumenical housing partnership dedicated to building simple, decent and affordable houses with low-income families in need. Habitat uses volunteer labor and donations of money and materials to provide affordable homeownership to those people who would otherwise not have that opportunity. Established in 1988, CDHfH is the Albany, New York affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International. Info: www.CapitalDistrictHabitat.org; 518-462-2993.
